

GREAT NEWS!

ONE OF US RECEIVES NATIONAL ATTENTION—

ONE OF US by Peggy Moss, illustrated by Penny Weber, is a lively story about whether it's more important to "fit in" or to feel comfortable being yourself.

- Best Book Award, Language Arts Picture Books — Society of School Librarians International
- Camellia Award —Alabama Department of Education
- Chosen by RIF for a set of multicultural books delivered to 650 schools
- Chosen for the nationwide Bully Awareness/No Name Calling promotion at B&N stores
- "Roberta's realization that individuality is complex and her developing self-definition make a fine story." —Yellow Brick Road
- "... Roberta negotiates the different groups of her new school till she finds the kids who defy easy categorization and realizes that she fits in just fine. . . . Weber's sunny illustrations show a dazzling array of children—all different hues, physical abilities, and even, if you look closely, a girl with a headscarf." —Kirkus Reviews

(Peggy Moss is also the author of our best-selling Say Something and Our Friendship Rules.)
